It's my heart pray

Daddy's little baby must learn this world is shady
And the color of your skin don't make you less of a lady
Degrade yourself never 'coz I'm teaching you better Life ain't all about cheddar, diamonds and leather

Understand you're a black sister
In this white man's world don't let it get ya Down girl it's essential that you grow amongst your group
So you don't grow too fast and be doin' Lord knows who

'Coz daddy loves you, don't let nobody tell you different
What I do for a living is a talent I'm given
And I'm a raise you too black, too strong beautiful
Tell the truth let you know what women go through

Lies and deceit the nigga you love he gone cheat
So be careful in the heat baby girl with cold feet
Keep yo head steady baby this world ain't ready
Make me proud you daddy's little baby

I'll always come back to you
I'll always come back to you
I'll always come back to you
You're my baby now and ever

Yo Ja's imagery is somewhat like God and His chemistry
"Blasphemy" I tell my baby girl proudly Put her over my knee and let her know this world is yours
Men are dogs take it from daddy and hold yours

Head high lady love is 'bout lies and deception
Will always be seen through the eyes
In my demise don't cry just hold on Stay headstrong and live to learn that life goes on

The day you was born God answered my cry for help
I look at you a female replica of myself
I was conceived two twenty-nine you nine twenty-two God what's the science in this sign you threw?

I want to know just so I can spread the jewel to my youth
So she don't have to come up like I did runnin' loots
Keep yo head steady baby this world ain't ready
Make me proud you're daddy's little baby for real

I'll always come back to you
I'll always come back to you
I'll always come back to you
You're my baby now and ever

When I look in your eyes I see stars
It's me and you against the world baby it's in the signs
And anything you want you can get it daddy's getting it done
You the reason why I keep the hundreds under the ones

And go through rain sleet and snow to kiss the sun
Though my travel through the storm has just begun Swear to God when my sister died I was only five Didn't even cry couldn't know the value of a life

Now I realize why Brittney's so rare to me
She came at the time when nobody cared for me
This world's tough I'm a guide you through it carefully
Learn the game and remember nothing in life's free

My little lady can't quite understand me now
But baby in time I'll break it down
So keep yo head steady baby this world ain't ready
Make me proud you're daddy's little baby for real

I'll always come back to you
I'll always come back to you
I'll always come back to you
You're my baby now and ever

You know I love you girl, oh yeah
And I'll always be there for you girl
You know, you know babe
You're my baby now and ever

And I will always
Oh you know, you know
Yeah you're my baby now and ever

And you know, you know baby

Now you see I love you girl
You're my little baby girl yeah
You're my baby now and ever
And I know you know, you know

Oh you know always, always Always you're my baby
Now and ever, I know
