(Lost little girl)

I admit I get a lot of love from women
It's only cause a nigga put that thug lovin' in them
It's hard as a mitten
Gotta hit the club and bang out
Song after song till I end up in the wrong route
Tank top, sweat it out
Where she's shakin' that ass, shakin' that ass
And got her breast pressed to the glass
Strobe lights flashin'
That ex is kickin' in
And I'm orderin the chrissy open bottles of gin
On our stairway to Heaven baby bring a friend
We'll tie up some men, fuck in the stretch Benz
You know me I like it wet, rode slowly
By the way baby, how old is you Codie?
You lookin' a little young to me
And how many you had that girl on, two or three?
It's a damn shame
But she coulda had the world
And now she's nothing more than a

Chill little girl put up in a world of confusion

Pop was abusin' one of God's children

Can't win for losin' her soul is dead

An she's feelin' like her worth is between her legs

She start fuckin' niggas and learn to show 'em respect

They a father figure she honor love and protect

She a down ass bitch

One you could cuddle up and wile out with

We call it thug love

Hot sex and hard drugs was a thing of the past

But look here Murder Inc nigga' bringin' it back

We got them stressed strung out beatin' to be hung out

Cry in their crib backs when they say why

Would I get involved with niggaz'

Involved with killaz'

Invlved with dealers

Involved with niggaz' that make millions

She coulda had it all including the world

Now she's nothing more than a

She's in danger now, she ain't livin her life right

She got a man but her mans livin' his own life

With his wife and kids his crib in Bev. Hills

The Benz that only spins on them chroamy wheels

What has he done for you lately?

Only remind you of when them times a little bit rider

A dick and he's crazy and will reminds us

And then he hit you with that one last promise

You want it to be the truth so bad

You lookin' in his eye and your cryin', sayin' he ain't lyin'

But you know he is

But your a glutton for punishment

And you know pain is love

So whats wrong with sufferin'

The hard times have past, the good times are comin'

All over your chest baby thats how your lovin it

And its sad cause you coulda' had the world
Now your nothin' but a
