When you play by the rules of the world
The world will rule you
When you play by the rules of the divine
You will rule the world
BRING. BACK. JA.
Im falling Im falling with no parachute (2x)
[Chorus]
All the way from heaven to the stars
The stars past the moon
The moon to the sky
The sky down to you
Im falling Im falling with no parachute
Im falling for love with no parachute
(I am thinking of you)
All the way from the heavens to the stars to the moon to your heart
I only fell to get up for you
My world is anew I put that on the cross
Give thanks to the lord the legend of the fall
Fuck you -no pause- niggas
May god bless us all and then bless the dead as they bodies descend
From the ledge to the roof to the head to the floor
And watch demons hover over they corpse
Its a long fall and a lot of niggas fall short
Unfortunately a lot of niggas fall off
But not me I could never see the ball drop
Unless its new years in the heart of new york
If you a new kid the block can get a little rough
Especially if the hard aint white enough
Cause I done been through it all and Ive seen even more
Only the flyest of niggas get to fall
[Chorus]
All the way from heaven to the stars
The stars past the moon
The moon to the sky
The sky down to you
Im falling Im falling with no parachute
Im falling for love with no parachute
(I am thinking of you)
If I gave the devil a hug and gave the lord a kiss

From the heavens above to the fire to my ashes
Nobody surpasses death it outlasts us all
Unless you're christ-like come back resurrection
Teflon now ya's can't kill me
I've already been dead I'm a holy spirit
Watch my soul fly around like a G6
While my body stage dives in the audience
I'm living this life limitless
If it ain't fly it has no relevance
If it ain't dumb that's just not intelligent
You should be smarter don't jump off the deep end
The dark side it's a long ride
Paint a portrait of the world in god's eyes
Just to be through it all and to see even more
Only the flyest of niggas get to fall
[Chorus]
All the way from heaven to the stars
The stars past the moon
The moon to the sky
The sky down to you
I'm falling I'm falling with no parachute
I'm falling for love with no parachute
(I am thinking of you)
