Ja rule:
yeah all you ?

girl you be checkin on me.
and i wanna know if we cut what it's gonna be.
you f*ckin with the wrong expect nothing less than diamonds, benz, perfumes one things for certain.
im searchin for mrs. right now that's right baby if you like i get you our of the night.
put you in the little cute ?
there's a problem maa, i fell for you ha ha.

Cristian Alexanda:
i think we got a problem, she's too fine.
the way she works her body man it's blowing my mind.
i know im not gonna be okay, if she leaves.
and now she got me looking, and she's staring at me.
my situation's changed all caught up, and i wish that i can fix out.
and we're gonna get up, cause her eyes i can't resist.
i'd give anything to make her mine.

Chorus:
she's too fine, she's so fine, she's too fine.
she's so fine, i'd do anything to make her mine.
girl work your body, you got me all hypnotic.
girl we get naughty, cause girl i want you back.
if you want me, im tryna get to you.
there's nothing that i can do, everybody knows she's too fine.
she's so fine, too fine, she's so fine.

Cristian Alexanda:
i never thought i'd say this bout some girl.
i used to be a player but she's working my world.
i know she's not gonna be okay if i leave.
cause now her friends are stepping over talkin to me.
my situation's changed all caught up, and a game that i can win now.

and we're gonna get up, cause her eyes/ass i can't resist.

Chorus:

she's too fine, she's so fine, she's too fine.

there's nothing that i can do, everybody knows she's too fine.

she's so fine, too fine, she's so fine.

Cristian Alexanda:

she look more like a beauty queen, from a movie scene.

i said girl i dont mind, what do you mean I am the one.

she took my hand to the floor, and we got it on.

the way she's shakin, man there's ain't no escapin.

Ja rule:

we've got too many issues and too many games

got too many shoes to pack for two days.

a good thing is that i think she goes both ways.

head game me, brought two friends look like twins.

but let's play devil's advocate for one evening.

and handle my buisness ? baby why wouldn't i

you be everything your heart desires. your so fine.

Chorus:

she's too fine, she's so fine, she's too fine.

if you want me, im tryna get to you.

she's so fine, too fine, she's so fine.

Cristian, Rule,

you know how we do it, haha whoo!

ah-ah-ha-ah-ha.
