[Ja Rule]

Yea

Rule

Are you a figment of my imagination?

Or am I one of yours?

Believe me baby, an hear me, fear me, feel me

That's why they all wanna kill me dead

True in the head but nigga not

As soon as I get the drop

I pull up the pop of the test

It's outta the prairie

Bitches style juice running through my head

How many wanna die nigga?

my concept It's irrational

My thinking now

I'm erratic like Mike W's whose falling down

I'm losin sight now I can hardly see

And smoking all this fucking weed

I can barely breathe

I'm like tell a bitch bleed

Squeeze on D

Run up in the deli

wrung up on D

Are ya watching me?

They be watching, niggas they be watching, keep watching

Keep watching me

Now don't look down

Are ya watching me?

They be watching, Bitches they be watching, keep watching

Keep watching me

Now don't look down

Whose watching me?

C'mon watch as I creep through your block in the hard top drop with my bead on knock cause cops i ain't standing and gangstas know

catching before hanging
And my dogs keep banging cause ain't shit changing
And hustlers ya'll keep slanging
We stuck in the game wit not a lot to gain but everything to lose but we soldiers that front-line
In days to rule
We do homicide drive-by's
Cock and spray
If you the last man standing
You about to lay
6 feet underground
Watch me now Stop me how?
Ya'll niggaz trying to cop my style
I spit nothing but hot ones and pop guns
make it hard for niggaz to function
Who want some of the Rule baby? (None of ya'll)
I'm legally considered crazy
But if that's the way that God made me
This world can't change me
And that's the way it'll be Caught in the dark
Until the light shines on me
I'm a slave to this game
But I'm break free
So keep watchin me
