Every member here has got the lingo
And every member here is calling bingo
Maybe you'll clue me in, I'm open to suggestions
I came for answers but instead I have more questions

Crack this code
So I may see this road that you're talkin' about
Crack this code
So I can meet this lord that I can't live without

Every member here has got a smile
And every member here is showing style
Whenever hope is born it always ends up dying
My life's a funeral but no one here is crying

Crack this code
So I may see this road that you're talkin' about
Crack this code
So I can meet this lord that I can't live without
I can't live without

Crack this code
So I may see this road that you're talkin' about
Crack this code
So I can meet this lord that I can't live without

Crack this code
So I may see this road that you're talkin' about
Crack this code
So I can meet this lord that I can't live without
