what if i died, would you think less of me? could you go on? hey it's ok you were no friend of mine. yeah drink another one. tip it back, choke it down. your eyes roll back, you hit the ground. you just lucked out of the breakin' down with yourself. you ask me why i'm scared. i'd ask you the same thing but my hearts racing. i said i lied, but i think that then i lied. i'd ask you the same thing but my heart's racing. i thought you were leaving as things slipped away. i thought you were leaving anchors away. the noose is tied. you got the best of me. my brain is tired, but it's ok cause your no friend of mine. you sunk another one. i hope it makes you smile.
