congratulations on your skin, the new look, sin, is in. all blackened up to try and hide, how you tick on the inside. life in a coma, it must not be too hard, but i would never call that living. you'd better wake up, before they pull the plug, and make your sleep never ending. you could sleep forever. when you go crashing down the stairs, just don't mess up your hair. that sucking chest wound really sucks. use your brains an plug it up. life in a coma, it must not be too hard, but i would never call that living. you'd better wake up,
ending. you could sleep forever. think california, dead actors and the stars are dead but don't stop existing.
zoom in and focus, close on a frame of mind. that makes your movie worth the making. you could live forever. it's not that hard being as you are. nothing feels better.
