Tom.. check it out..

I gotta talk natural..

Expansion..

Go in front of the industry bullshitters..

Devotion..

I gotta tell it like it is, my way now!

I wanna say somethin tonight that might.. wherever you are..

if you're in radio land or if you're right here..

[Maroons]

Ooooh, it existed in you

It exist in love too

Respect your golden rule

Your soul is the only proof

It existed in you

Respect your golden rule

[Lateef]

I ain't gon' wear no clown bells, not pass my crown

They didn't tell you bout my golden rule? Write this on down

Almight love is eternal, what go around come around

From the chatter of Africa to the talk of the town

It be the pattern makes the matter was beyond the profound

They're strategizin the sound since the beginnin of time

And everything is divine, so tell me why you on mine?

I promise closer that you get to the throne, the less it shine

It takes, responsibility, a keen mind and spine

Rhythm up in the rhyme, livin in the design and inclined to, give a little take a little re-organize it

Have the aftermath covered ??

Even if you don't just gotta keep try-in Ain't no need to wonder see, people gon', always try and

steal your thunder better bring your um-brella

Cause it's gon' be rain, to fella, let me tell ya one thing Somethin new, could happen, it do everday, it's how you ride the wave with implicit simplici-ty and move around them obstacles with, liquid fluidi-ty and be, just a moment til you write your own page It's always somebody tryin to get paid off what you made

Lamp in the shade while I slave but like Kam say, +Neva Again+

My windpipe, is like a loaded twelve gauge and I'ma leave up in a blaze of glory glory, that's if they want the funk but that's still yet another story
Not all of this wack junk, that we done been ENDURIN
And no practice shows from crumbs they're straight BORIN

You get laughed at, with that crap, while we're TOURIN from coast to coast, border to border shore to shore reaction from the hardcore and I'ma go on and on and on and..

Shock rock it to the early Shirley Murdoch morning Killing the yawning when I'm up on it to the break of
down

Shakin down, breakin down, my opponents into they various components, like I'm engineerin the show

The vigilante microphone is, BLAZED off the chronic Anti-demonic harmonic phonics

You best respect on G.P., like the Sonics

Flows be hypnotic, got your head noddin

Off the bionic, make you feel like you retarded

The party it ain't started til the Lateef, Maroons, Quannum

the whole damn spot it get hot and I ain't gon' wear no clown bells nah pass my crown

They didn't tell you bout my golden rule, write this on
down

I ain't gon' play the minstrel fool, not pass my crown

They didn't tell you bout my golden rule, write this on
down

I ain't gon' do it -- pass my crown

They didn't tell you bout my golden rule, write this on
down

Almighty love is eternal what go around come around

From the chatter of Africa to the talk of the town

From the chatter of Africa to the talk of the town

From the chatter of Africa to the talk of the town

From the chatter of Africa .. so check it out now..

[Maroons] * overlaps last four lines *

Ooooh, it existed in you

It exist in love too

Respect your golden rule

Oooh, it exists in the truth
It existed in you
Respect your golden rule

Oooooh, you can't learn it in school
Your soul is the only too
Respect your golden rule

Oooh, you here now to find your own groove
We're here to set you free from your blues You're now in tune with Maroons..
