I apologize if I didn't say I'm sorry
I really truly am, okay not really
But the mental asylum denied me
And now I'm here singing on the streets
They say I should straighten up, get clean
I don't give two shits what they mean
If a psycho's what I am, then I psycho I will be

[Chorus:]
Say hello to my darkest side
The other one's dark, but in my mind
A million voices trying to fill my vice
Time after time after time after time
Say hello to Mr. Insanity

My mind is like a barricade
There's no getting through
Not hearing a single word you say
Or giving a damn about you
What I want is what I'll do

Say hello to my darkest side
The other one's dark, but in my mind
A million voices trying to fill my vice
Time after time after time after time
Say hello to Mr. Insanity

So life is one big craze
My mind drifts far away
To a distant, happy place
But I'm still so fucking insane

Say hello to my darkest side
The other one's dark, but in my mind
A million voices trying to fill my vice
Time after time after time after time
Say hello to Mr. Insanity
Time after time after time after time
Say hello to Mr. Insanity
