It doesn't matter if I shoot you down
It doesn't matter if I walk past bounds
Silly bitch, you're such a jumparound
Give me your hate or get out of town
Get out of town

[Chorus:]

You shouldn't care if I aim and fire
I am the only one that you desire
Doesn't make a difference if I put up a shield
Because nothing matters on the battlefield

Stained cheeks due to the tears
Being away is a soldier's worst fear
His wife and children don't miss him anymore
They don't expect him to come to the door
Come to the door

You shouldn't care if I aim and fire
I am the only one that you desire
Doesn't make a difference if I put up a shield
Because nothing matters on the battlefield

You shouldn't care if I aim and fire
I am the only one that you desire
Doesn't make a difference if I put up a shield
Because nothing matters on the battlefield

Find the fire inside
Behind enemy lines
So many men have died
Someone save my life

You shouldn't care if I aim and fire
I am the only one that you desire
Doesn't make a difference if I put up a shield
Because nothing matters on the battlefield
