You drive me insane
Day after day
I need some form of sedation
To take my pain away
I guess that I'll be fine
Got the song but not the rhyme
Like a tattoo I can't remove Too afraid I will lose you

Look over there and what do you see?
Our future is so dull, it can't be
We spin around in a melodramatic twister
What can I do when all I do is miss her?

[Chorus:]

It's the tragic, typical case of insane
You love one minute
And in the next, you hate
Insanity is a form of our love
Love is the reason we push and we shove
We always lose without the gain
Babe, it's a psychotic hurricane

We've both been tough times and trials
But this great storm won't stop being wild
Forget all the passions and feelings of old
You better suit up, or be left out in the cold
The rain and hail cuts sharper than a nail
Don't have anywhere to go, unless we both bail
Our feelings are limited in the thunder strike
Strap on a seatbelt, it's gonna be a wild ride

Look over there and what do you see?
The windowpane view is starting to get bleak
We spin around in a supernatural tornado
What can I do when all I can do is hope?

[Chorus:]

It's the tragic, typical case of insane
You love one minute
And in the next, you hate
Insanity is a form of our love

Love is the reason we push and we shove
We always lose without the gain
Babe, it's a psychotic hurricane

[Chorus:]

It's the tragic, typical case of insane
You love one minute
And in the next, you hate
Insanity is a form of our love
Love is the reason we push and we shove
We always lose without the gain
Babe, it's a psychotic hurricane

Around and around and around we go
I wish that one day we'll both know
Around and around and around we go
We're all just actors in a puppet show
Around and around and around we go
I see a light, an everlasting glow
It's getting harder to see
It's getting harder to breathe
It's getting harder to love me

[Chorus:]

It's the tragic, typical case of insane
You love one minute
And in the next, you hate
Insanity is a form of our love
Love is the reason we push and we shove
We always lose without the gain
