Don't you tell me what you think about me
If you love me and have fallen head over heels
I couldn't care less what magic seems to be
Girl I'm in need of something tangible and real
Deaf love falls on piercings tones and reveries
I need a woman who can teach me it's okay to feel

You aren't that for me
And you'll never understand

[Chorus:]

Into my system, inject it, faster faster
Try to fix my woes, better call the pastor
Maybe he can save me from what I used to be
Perhaps he'll put eternal life in me
Into my system, inject it, faster faster
Into my system, inject it, faster faster

Did you think this was society's average?
I'm not what people tell me I should be
Don't believe that this is what I wanted
My blue eyes can't tell your future, can't foresee
If you will live another day or die tainted
Sending your love out into the deadest of seas

Nobody wants to hear the truth
And I don't believe I'll understand

Into my system, inject it, faster faster
Try to fix my woes, better call the pastor
Maybe he can save me from what I used to be
Perhaps he'll put eternal life in me
Into my system, inject it, faster faster
Into my system, inject it, faster faster

One day you told me you were falling for me
Two nights we fell sick under this disease
Three lies I told you so you could breathe
You and I were never meant to live forever
Me and you were never meant to stay together

Into my system, inject it, faster faster

Try to fix my woes, better call the pastor
Maybe he can save me from what I used to be
Perhaps he'll put eternal life in me
Into my system, inject it, faster faster
Into my system, inject it, faster faster

You aren't that for me
And you'll never understand
