I don't want to hear your voice
So I turned off my phone
But lately I don't have a choice
Between yes and no
All the other happy boys
Know love and still I don't

[Chorus:]

So don't feed me what you're giving everyone else
Maybe you can with them, but you aren't making my life
hell
Shut your mouth and let me drown out your voice
With my white noise
With my white noise

Don't send me an e-mail
Telling what you feel
You're words never seem right
Contrived and so unreal
You're so fake, you know
Here's the problem; let it go

So don't feed me what you're giving everyone else
Maybe you can with them, but you aren't making my life
hell
Shut your mouth and let me drown out your voice
With my white noise
With my white noise

Whatever tension you may have
Leave it all at home
I hate it when it's them you brag
Leave me the fuck alone

So don't feed me what you're giving everyone else
Maybe you can with them, but you aren't making my life
hell
Shut your mouth and let me drown out your voice
With my white noise
With my white noise

With my white noise

With my white noise
