He's the sunlight in my sky
He's the moon that shines at night
He's the rainbow over me, the river runnin' to the sea

The music and the poetry, the beauty that my eyes can see
Still His love means so much more to me

He's my Savior and everything within me
Wants to tell the world it's true, yeah
He's my Savior if only you could open up your heart
You would know Him, too

He's the fire in my soul, He melts my heart
And makes me whole
He's the air upon my breath
The gentle touch of holiness

Just for me, He gave his life, and in that moment paid
the price
For all I've ever done and that is why

He's my savior and everything within' me
Wants to tell the world it's true, yea
He's my Savior the moment that you open up your heart
You will know Him, too

I can take you there, but I can't cross the line
It's my deepest prayer that this will be your time

I will vow, yeah
I will vow, yeah

Just for me He gave his life, and in the moment paid
the price
For all I've ever done and that is why

He's my Savior, my best friend
He's my Savior, He saved me
He's my Savior and everything within' me wants to Tell the world it's true, it's true, it's true
He's my Savior the moment that you open up your heart

You will know Him, too

He's my Savior and everything within' me wants to Tell the world it's true, it's true, it's true
He's my Savior the moment that you open up your heart
You will know Him too, him too
He saved me, He rescued me
Every day, every night, every movement of my life
He rescues me, yea
