I've waited all this time
Counted minutes as they've passed
Searching for a sign
Wishing for the best

And just my hopes
Were wearing thin
You turned my heart to love again

Like a miracle out of the blue
You rescued me like the angels do
You shook the Heavens and cracked the sky
When You walked, when You walked into my life

When You appear
Like sight to the blind
Like music to my ears
Like reason to arrive

And just when I thought
My chance was gone
Love came to me with open arms

Like a miracle out of the blue
You rescued me like the angels do
You shook the Heavens and cracked the sky
When You walked, when You walked into my life

You spoke my name
And the world begun again
You touched my heart and it opened

Like a miracle out of the blue
You rescued me like the angels do
You shook the Heavens and cracked the sky
When You walked, when You walked into my life

You rescued me
You shook the Heavens and cracked the sky
(When You walked)
Into my life
