Don't it make you wanna go home now don't it make you wanna go home
All God's children get weary when they roam don't it make you wanna go home Don't it make you wanna go home

Oh the whippoorwill roost on the telephone poles when the Georgia sun goes down Well it's been a long time but I'm glad to say that I'm Goin' back down to my hometown I'm goin' down to the greyhound station gonna buy some oneway fare Good Lord's willin' and the creeks don't rise tomorrow I will be back there
Don't it make you wanna go home now...

There's a six lane highway down by the creek where I went skinny dippin' as a child And there's a driving show where the meadow used to grow

And the strawberries used to grow wild There's a drugstore down by the riverside where my grandma's cow used to graze Ah but the grass don't grow and the rivers don't flow Like they did in our childhood days
Don't it make you wanna go home now...
Don't it make you wanna go home now...
