I know I told you I could take it
If you had to tell me goodbye
But you're leavin' and I don't think I can make it
Forgive me but I'm afraid I lied

I am thankful for each stolen moment
And I promised that I wouldn't cry
But you're leavin' and there goes my promise
Forgive me but I'm afraid I lied

We both knew it couldn't work out
But we just had to try it both sides
We said anytime we could stop it
Well, baby you can but but I'm afraid I lied, I lied
