(Gatti, Ketchell, Santoriello)

For them times, I used to hold you. For the times, I kept you from the cold

Won't you please, consider my love one time. Won't you please keep me in mind.

For when the world plays your good fortune. Or if this mean old world should ever do you wrong

Well then try to remember all the hills that we climbed.

And please keep me

in mind

Baby, all the things that you want. And all the things that I've done. I could never leave you

And I know I was wrong, and I lied and I'm sorry. Baby, won't you, for the sweet love that we used to share

Won't you please consider my love, one time. Won't you please keep me in mind.

Oh, don't you remember them times I used to hold you.

And baby, for the times

I kept you from the cold

Won't you try, try to remember all the hills that we used to climb. And please keep me in mind

Baby, won't you please keep me in mind. Oh, I want you to remember

Come on, come on, come on baby, baby, I never meant to do you wrong

Please, please, please. Won't you please keep me in mind
