I really want to work this out
Is there something I've got to do
Tell me how to make this right
'Cause I've got to get through to you

If I could find the right thing to say
That would finally take away your doubt
Is we can't throw this away
Yeah I really want to work this out

Tell me there's one thing
I can't do again, I won't do that again
That something we're missing
We'll find it again, we'll find it again, we'll find it again

Yeah I really want to work this out
Right here and now
Before we have to be apart
Before we make the same mistakes again

Yeah I really want to find a place
Stop wasting all this time
I guess this is all about
Yes I really want to work this out

Tell me there's one thing
I can't do again, I won't do that again
That something we're missing
We'll find it again, we'll find it again, we'll find it again

Yeah I really want to work this out
Right here and now
Before we have to be apart
Before we make the same mistakes again

Yeah I really want to find our place
Stop wasting all this time
I guess what you're trying to say
Is I really want to work this out
Yeah I guess this is all about
Yes I really want to work this out
