Well he's not necessarily tryin' to say that he minds it
But someone plays evil tricks on that kid
Well he's not necessarily tryin' to say God can't be trusted
But someone plays evil tricks on that kid
And certain situations scream for deviations
But somehow he always gets stuck in the middle
Of this and that and man he should try less
Every time he's rejected man he loses affection

But don't we all, don't we just got to give a little time
Maybe give a friend a call instead of makin' him

Confused
What a terrible thing for you to do
What an awful thing for you to say
What a terrible thing for you to relate

Well I know some people's they got a little less than nothing
They will still find some to spare
And other people got more than they could use
But they don't share
And some people got problems man
They got awful complications
Other people got perfect situations
With no provocation

But don't we all, don't we just got to give a little time
Maybe give a friend a call instead of makin' him

Confused
What a terrible thing for you to do
What an awful thing for you to say
What a terrible thing for you

Confused
What a terrible thing for you to do
What an awful thing for you to say
What a terrible thing for you to relate

Somehow we always get stuck in the middle

(Somehow we always got stuck in the middle)
Confused
(Somehow we always got stuck in the middle)
What an awful thing for you to do
(Somehow we always got stuck in the middle)
Confused
(Somehow we always got stuck in the middle)
What an awful thing for you to say
(Somehow we always got stuck in the middle)
