One...Two...One, Two, Three...

No need to pull some weight around
But then I ain't gonna just sit here
Like a clown and just wait around (Oh no)
I'm taking what I've earned to be takin'
And you know that ya' only get stronger
When your heart is aching (Oh Lord)
But me I've had enough of waitin' around for some red tape
You know it's just a fake
And I say it's a big mistake

And we're all human
So there's no need to be taking it
With some honor and harmony
We'll surely be making it
With a little
Honor and harmony...yeah
Just a little bit a'
Honor and harmony...yeah
Come on now!

What shall we choose to be our tactics
In this age of computer taxes (Oh no)
When in this new era to come
We shall be organized and not supervised
From the physical to the spiritual

All our workings will be so critical
Our offense and mental will soar
And you know that this ornamental shall be so pure
And we won't sweat the expense
In the new millenium
We are raising through the fog
Helping the healing God
The next awakening is you

And we're all human
There's no reason to be taking it
With some honor and harmony
We'll surely be making it

With a little
Honor and harmony...yeah
Just a little bit a'
Honor and harmony...yeah
Come on now!

You stand toe to toe,
You can see eye to eye,
(Check out this honor and harmony...yeah)
(Ahhhhh...hhhaa)
The next awakening is you...
The next awakening is you
The next awakening is you...
The next awakening is you
