Be the one, be the one, be the one, be the one
Be the one, be the one
Be the one, be the one, be the one, be the one

The stage was set for me to play
But I decided on the day that I did not believe the page
I walked away because of you
Just like Tiresias I knew that me and you were fated too

We asked the church to save our souls
They said we were too early and to join the fold
I lay and watch you sleep beneath the citrus sky
Pretending not to see you through my wanting eyes

I knew you could be the one, I knew you should be the one
I knew you could be the one, be the one, be the one
I knew you should be the one, I knew you could be the one
I knew you should be the one, be the one, be the one

My past was painted on a wall
But with a look you made a fool, I placed your flag into a pool
I'll follow you for any cause
I'll fight for you in any wars and all to say that I am, I'm yours

We asked the church to save our souls
I lay and watch you sleep beneath the citrus sky
Pretending not to see you through my wanting eyes

I knew you should be the one, I knew you could be the one
I knew you would be the one, be the one, be the one
I knew you could be the one, I knew you should be the one
I knew you could be the one, be the one, be the one

Did we really, did we really fall in love?
Be the one, be the one

Did we really, did we really fall in love?
Be the one, be the one

I knew you should be the one, I knew you could be the one

I knew you would be the one, be the one, be the one

I knew you should be the one, I knew you could be the
one

I knew you should be the one, be the one, be the one

Did we really, did we really fall in love?

Did we really, did we really fall in love?

Did we really, did we really fall in love?

Did we really, did we really fall in love?

Did we really, did we really?
