Dr. Frankenstein
With all the things you've brought to life
Tell me...are you satisfied
Well are you happy now
And Dr Frankenstein
There's innocence in every crime
Some in yours and some in mine
But it shouldn't be allowed

Cuz it's not
Where you go
When you die
It's how you live when you're alive
Who you touch and how you feel it
And it's not
About the time
That you have
It's how you cry and how you laugh
Who you love and how you mean it
And do you mean it

Dr Frankenstein
To think you wasted all this time
Of making monsters in your mind
Well I hope they make you proud.

Cuz it's not
Where you go
When you die
It's how you live when you're alive
Who you touch and how you feel it

And it's not
About the time
That you have
It's how you cry, and how you laugh
Who you love and how you mean it
And do you mean it

Well it's not
Where you go
When you die

It's how you live when you're alive
Who you touch and how you feel it
And it's not
About the time
That you have
It's how you cry and how you laugh
Who you love and how you mean it
And do you mean it

No, no, no
It's not
Where you go
When you die
It's how you live when you're alive
Who you touch and how you feel it
And it's not
About the time
That you have
It's how you cry and how you laugh
Who you love and how you mean it
And do you mean it
