Hate and Love

You say that we're different
I feel the same
You tell me you're leaving
I'm here to stay

Sunshine and rain
Make a beautiful thing

My strenght is your weakness
My heart is own
Your voice sprays my silence
Then we're alone

Sunshine and rain
Make a beautiful thing (ohhh..)

Everything you are is everything I'm not
Night and day, light and dark
Everything I'll need is everything you've got
All in your hate and all in your love

Sunshine and rain
Make a beautiful thing (ohhh..)

Everything you are is everything I'm not
Night and day, light and dark
Everything I'll need is everything you've got
All in your hate and all in your love

Sunshine and rain
Make a beautiful thing (ohhh..)
