Rollin' and a rockin' on a late night trying to beat the devil at a fist fight looking for a friend in a bottle of red making up a word thats never been said

Waiting in line for the next fine making up a rhyme but it don't rhyme baby, I'm a loser at this game if you could see me now you'd be ashamed, be ashamed of me

Cause I'm not worthy of your love im barely keeping up
feels like every single day, all I ever do is say I'm sorry I guess that i'm not worthy of your love

Every night living like a runaway trying to make it back for the break of day I never learn from my mistakes so much for my great escape

Put my future on the back burner grew up fast but i'm a slow learner only got myself to blame if you could see me now you'd be ashamed of me, so ashamed of me

im barely keeping up
feels like every single day, all I ever do is say I'm sorry
i guess that i'm not worthy of your love

How could you possibly love someone like me? a fool I'll always be

And I'm not worthy of your love im barely keeping up
feels like every single day, all I ever do is say I'm sorry I guess that i'm not worthy of your love
