I can only keep saying I'm sorry,
For the things that I try not to do,
If it would make you feel better I'd write you a letter,
But I'm not sure that you'd want me to,
And A friend means a friend not forever,
But A brother's a brother for life,
And you can't pick and choose maybe one day you'll move,
But I hope that you'll stay in my life,

So let yourself go, but don't you fall, don't you fall,
Don't you leave me alone, 'cause I promise I'll never
leave you,
Yes I promise I'll never leave you,

I remember when we were much younger,
I remember how you used to laugh,
But come darkness or light I still think we're alright,
So I'm glad that you keep coming back,
And now that I'm colder than winter,
Well I won't let you end up the same,
'Cause you're smarter than me and you always will be,
So I'm coming back home this December,

So let yourself go, but don't you fall, don't you fall,
Don't you leave me alone, 'cause I promise I'll never
leave you,
Yes I promise I'll never leave you,
