All praise to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, O keep me, King of Kings,
Beneath thy own almighty wings.

A child should always say what's true,
And speak when he is spoken to,
And behave mannerly at table:
At least as far as he is able.

O may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep my eyelids close:
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

A child should always say what's true,
And speak when he is spoken to,
And behave mannerly at table:
At least as far as he is able.

Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The I'll that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

A child should always say what's true,
And speak when he is spoken to,
And behave mannerly at table:
At least as far as he is able.
