Dress the Part

And I will watch her walk by and I know what she's thinking inside
So I won't try to catch her attention

When she can only watch the ground
I'll dress the part of the one that loses now
It's no surprise after all
He's much easier on her eyes

So much to give but she'll give no chances So nothing romantic will ever take and your courtesy smile is so fake There's nothing I can say

So I'll just watch her look away

When I can only watch the ground
She'll dress the part of the one that refuses now
It's no surprise after all
she is oh so perfect inside

So much to give but they'll give no chances
Just let her destroy me
