The triple traitor comes to tell them lies
The scourge upon this charred remain
And as we fall into this crypt of memory
We are possessed
We are fighting for supremacy

Take his eyes take his eyes take his eyes
So I can be whole again
Give him sight give him sight give him sight
So I can be free again

Endlessly I fawn on destruction
And growing power
Up above the hillside collapses

In a past life
Ruby crystal coronations leave me dust
You can't control me
You can't defeat me
Cos I will live again

Take his eyes take his eyes take his eyes
So I can be whole again
Give him sight give him sight give him sight
So I can be free again

In this body
In my mind
Is a ghost
With a crown
In this deceptive future
Our stars scream
