"In The Shadow"

In the shadow of your wings
I will sing, my soul thirsts for you
My body longs for the one
In a dry and weary land, where water is not
Oh, Oh I will sing
Oh, Oh I will sing

In the shadow of your wings
I will sing, my soul is satisfied with the richest roots
And my gracious lips, are praising you

Oh, Oh I will sing
Oh, Oh I will sing

In the shadow of your wings
I will sing, through night watches
To your dawn I cling
When fears are my refuge (?), in the shadow of your wings

Oh, Oh I will sing
Oh, Oh I will sing
