10 years ago, I thought I knew
Everything, nobody couldn't tell me shit
But I was in love, boy I was dumb
It's just like playing with a loaded gun
And I say whoa, how can you trust?
Trust someone who's always leaving
And whoa, how good I get? When I'm out with other women
[Chorus]
It's one thing when you're 21, you don't look in the mirror
And now a nigga 31, you see things so much clearer
It's one thing when you're 21, you don't look in the mirror
And now a nigga 31, you see things so much clearer
Oh, yeah, so many friends, in the beginning Saying we family yeah I got you, don't trip
But with flash of lights, came into sight
Down swoops the one that was left holdin
I say whoa, how can you trust?
Trust someone who's always leaving
I say whoa, how could I see
When I spend so much damn money
[Chorus]
It's one thing when you're 21, you don't look in the mirror
And now a nigga 31, you see things so much clearer
It's one thing when you're 21, you don't look in the mirror
And now a nigga 31, you see things so much clearer
Sing it for me, sing it for me
It's one thing when you're 21, you don't look in the mirror
And now a nigga 31, you see things so much clearer
It's one thing when you're 21, you don't look in the mirror
And now a nigga 31, you see things so much clearer
[Chorus]
