i tried to be everything i tried to please everyone crying this tears of a clown the show is over with every step i take i'm finding out who i am who i am inside and it keeps getting better now i live every moment cause i know where i'm going knowing that i'll find my way chorus

i don't mind if the road is difficult i don't mind if it's me or here all alone something inside takes me where i need to go and that is the journey to beautiful
beautiful, beautiful
beautiful, beautiful
journey to beautiful

everyone finds their way it's never quite the same if you take the look inside it's calling calling calling will you live every moment know just where you're going that you're going to find someday?

beautiful, beautiful
journey to beautiful

i'm a fighter, i'll keep climbing, i'll keep holding on hold my head up let my heart out speaking loud from the soul

beautiful, beautiful

this is my journey to beautiful
