There must be something wrong with me
There must be something happening that i don't even see.

What's it going to be?

Aw, it's just as well

I can't believe the state i'm in

I think i think too much and now my thoughts are getting thin

Where should I begin?

Oh, it's just as well

Cause' all I wanted from you: Love me like you wanted, I can't keep your heart if your heart can't be kept
satisfied

I like to watch the sun go down

I like to watch her sinking from the other side of town its sad to know you're not around oh but it's just as well

Cause' all I wanted from you: Love me like you wanted,
I can't keep your heart if your heart can't be kept
satisfied

Even if the walls come down, they crumble down on me

I can find my own way out

I can set my self free

So tell me sister, whats the use?

i'm nothing but a singer with my head up in the noose...

somebody cut me loose

oh it's just as well

Romeo and Juliet

where made for one another but before they even met..

he said: "such a face i can't forget" oh but it's just as well

Cause' all I wanted from you: Love me like you wanted to
I can't break your heart if your heart can't be kept
satisfied
