Well the lightning struck in the family
Kinda moved them to the cemetery now
I looked out for some information
And I can't sleep with the agitation going down
Yeah going down

There's an angel down in 2nd street
He's got a whole lot of damage, but it doesn't bleed
It beamed down for some integration
But it can't leave for the gravitation keeps it down

Into the streets and out
Back on it's feet and down
Looking at me alone
I took it home

I'm a nightmare boy of the 1st degree
Used to fall down from the highest tree
I dream a lot about the constellation
Where I came from till the great damnation brought me down
Yeah brought me down

There's an angel down in 2nd street
Who's got a whole lot of damage, but it doesn't bleed, no
It beamed down for some integration
Now he can't leave for the gravitation keeps it down

Into the streets and out
Back on it's feet and down
Lookin at me alone
I took it home

Long for the constellation
Doodoodoo

Yeah going down
Into the streets and out
Back on it's feet and down (down down down down)
Flyin at me alone (down down down down)

Into the streets and out (down down down down)
Back on it's feet and down (down down down down)
Into the streets and out (down down down down)
Looking at me alone (down down down down)
I took it home
