Listen, I'm leaving, I can't have your talking
I hate it so hear this, I want it to stop

But I can't seem to find, no heart, no reply

I have been hoping to get it together
There has been nobody who told me to stop
But I can't and I won't stop, no heart, no reply
I just can't face it anymore

I am so shallow, can't ever do better,
Inspiral denial has made me give up
Cause I can't and I won't, confide to what I'm told
I just can't face it anymore

Following the sun, look at her eyes
I suddenly know it's a sign but I can be wrong
Oh, I have been hoping that I was wrong
Oh I had been hoping all along but it can be It can be

For I can't seem to find, no heart, no reply
I just can't face it anymore
