"Out There"

Running down a street I know,
All too well,
And it feels like,
I've been put under a spell,
And I've tried hard to break it,
To make it.

But since the day you put this poison in me,
Broke into my life and you did the deed,
Now I can't settle down nowhere,
Somehow I got lost out there.

No no no no no no,
You lived my life,
And put it out girl,
Left me dying on the floor,
All alone, I know where,
You're out there.

And ever since this day this fire in me,
Started bugging me,
I really tried,
To run away, but I can't get no where,
Stuck in here and I can't get out there... get out there...

Running down a street I know,
All too well,
And it feels like,
I've been put under a spell,
And I've tried hard to break it,
To make it.

But since the day you put this poison in me,
Broke into my life and you did the deed,
Now I can't settle down nowhere,
Somehow I got lost out there.

No no no no no no,
You lived my life,
And put it out girl,
Left me dying on the floor,

All alone, I know where,
You're out there.
