The summer's here but I'm just sitting in my room
I sit and wonder If you think of me as I think of you
I'm lost without you, don't know what I'm gonna do
When I had you, well I never realized
Now I blew it, I'll never get another chance
Now the summer's here and you're with somebody else
Now that you're gone I don't know if I can carry on
I'm sorry 'bout the things that I've done
I know that it was over 'fore it started
I have your number but I haven't the guts to call
I know it's up to me but I just stare at the wall
I know it's useless, I should just forget it all
When I was with you I never took it seriously
When you told me you had it and that you would leave
I said: well baby, just go I'm better of alone
Now that you're gone I don't know if I can carry on
I'm sorry 'bout the things that I've done
I know that it was over 'fore it started
The summer's here but I'm just sitting in my room
I sit and wonder If you think of me as I think of you
I'm lost without you, don't know what I'm gonna do
Now that you're gone I don't know if I can carry on
I'm sorry 'bout the things that I've done
I know that it was over 'fore it started
Now that you're gone I don't know if I can carry on
I'm sorry 'bout the things that I've done
I know that it was over 'fore it started
Over 'fore it started
Over 'fore it started
