I believe I got a temper
Every time you read my mind
I just feel defenseless
Tied up and blind

Never really had this tension.
Trying to restrain myself
Never payed attention
Tied up like hell

Oh but it can never be the same
You should know better now
We've been going over this again just like before I'll be leaving all the things behind, should have been ready now
Hey I will never stop, I will decide for myself if I was wrong

I believe I lost my senses
Thought that you could read my mind
Never payed attention
So fuckin blind
I have enough of this tension
Trying to behave myself
I feel defenseless
Tied up like hell

Oh that it can never be the same
You should know better now
We've been going over this again just like before
I believe it gonna hurt this time, should have been
ready now
wrong
