Shooby doo wop wop wop
Shooby doo wop wop wop
Shooby doo wop wop wop

My heart is fine, fine, lonely teardrops
Why they'll never dry up? Lonely teardrops

Come home, come home
Just say you will, say you will, say you will
Say you will, say you will
Hey hey, say you will

My heart is fine, fine, lonely teardrops
Why they'll never dry up? Lonely teardrops

Come home, come home
Just say you will, say you will, say you will
Say you will, say you will
Hey hey, say you will

Just give me another chance, for I'll romance
Come on and tell me that one day you'll return
'Cause everyday that you've been gone away
You'll know why my heart does nothing but burn crying

Lonely teardrops
Why they'll never dry up? Lonely teardrops

Come home, come home
Just say you will, say you will, say you will
Say you will, say you will
Hey hey, say you will

Say it right now baby, say you will Come on, come on, say you will Say it darling yeah, say you will
