she got your number
she know your game
she took you under its so insane

since she seduced you
how does it feel
to know that women
is out to kill

every night stance is like taking a chance
its not about love and romance
and now you're gonna get it

every hot man is out taking a chance
its not about love and romance
and now you do regret it

to escape the world
i've got to enjoy that simple dance and it seemed that everything was on my side (blood on my side)

it seemed to me like it was love
and true romance
and now shes out to get me
and i just can't take it just can't break it

(chorus)
susi got your number
and susi ain't your friend look who took you under with seven inches in blood is on the dance dloor blood is on the knife
susi got your number
and susi says its right

to know the stranger

she got your baby
it happened fast
if you could only
erase the past

every night stance is like taking a chance

i've got to enjoy this simple dance and it seemed that everything was on my side (blood is on my side)

(chorus)
