Heaven knows I love you, girl
I've never felt this way before
Each day I love you more and more and more

People always stare at us when we're together
'Cause we laugh and joke and always have a ball
We're friends and that makes us so much better
We respect each other too I was lucky the day that I found you

Heaven knows I love you, girl
I've never felt this way before
Each day I love you more and more and more

I've found a little place for us to go and be alone
Let's fix it up the way we want and call it home sweet home
Our love is priceless, it's so, so rare
We believe in the same things too, I was lucky the day that I found you

Heaven knows I love you, girl
I've never felt this way before
Each day I love you more and more and more

Precious is a love that's based on truth
No words could ever describe the way I feel about you
You know, when two hearts beat as one when two minds think as one
They can overcome any obstacle and always stay together

Heaven knows I love you, girl
Heaven knows I love you, girl
Heaven knows I love you, girl
(I love you, I love you)
Heaven knows I love you, girl
(Never felt this way)
(I love you, love you, love you)
Heaven knows I love you, girl
(I love you, I love you girl)
