Here, when all my work is done
She calls and she says, dear, can I come?
I say to her, that you know our love has gone yeah
But aggressive heart, you're really not the one

She comes to the door, crying at my feet
Guilt shines in her eyes as she slowly sinks in deep
You know our love couldn't last forever
Persuade your way, but you ain't clever
I close the door and I say never

I don't care, what you're saying
Walk right now, I ain't playing
Love elsewhere, for you I'm praying
Don't look back, you ain't staying

Here, I'm crying, I can't sleep
I sigh, 'cause I thought this would never be
I say ooh, I'm screaming out for someone
And now she's knocking on the door for me
She just won't leave me alone

She wants to speak with me
And persuade me in her arms
And how she's calling on the phone for me
Oh just won't leave me alone

Deep down inside she's trying to be clever
To love once more then leave me forever
I close the door and I say never

I don't care, what you're saying
Walk right now, I ain't playing
Love elsewhere, for you I'm praying
Don't look back, you ain't staying

I don't care, what you're saying
Walk right now, oh I could do it to me
Love elsewhere, oh I could do it to me
Don't look back

I try so hard to cope with you

I can't bear with the things you put me through
To love as friends, I wish that we could see
But persuasive heart, you just won't
Let pure friendship be

You know our love couldn't last forever
Persuade your way, but you ain't clever
I close the door and I say, "Never"

I don't care, what you're saying
Walk right now, I ain't playing
Love elsewhere, for you I'm praying
Don't look back, you ain't staying

I don't care, what you're saying
Walk right now, I ain't playing
Love elsewhere, for you I'm praying
Don't look back, I could do it to me

I don't care, oh I could do it to me
Walk right now, oh I could do it to me
Love elsewhere, I could do it to me
Don't look back

Yeah, oh baby

I don't care
Walk right now
Love elsewhere
Don't look back

I don't care
Walk right now
Don't look back
