Chorus:

It's like the moment that I seen you, girl you had me speechless.

I don't wanna leave you, so tell me all your secrets.

You are my weakness, try and get to know me,

And I can leave my homies and be your Tendoroni.

1st Verse

Cheeko - G

I've been a mack since I was younger, but this chick she was a wonder.

I met her in the summer, she was posted in a hummer.

I came up to her ride, and then she said that she was taken

By a nigga from the bay but I knew that she steady fakin.

You poppin like some bacon, your eyes is like some spinners,

Cause you got me going round and round just take me out for dinner.

Then maybe catch a movie, we have a walk around the park,

And then we hit up Jamba Juice to get some berry smoothies.

I never been sprung in my life, this girl was the only one.

She got me hypnotized and now everyday we having fun.

Doing things to make me smile, knowing that it's been a while,

I'm hitting up Rodeo bout to cop some clothes that fit her style.

And I'm getting grip of shoes, haters say forget them fools.

I aint got no problem leaving all my homies just for you.
Cause you is the freshest of the freshest girls I've ever seen.

Baby please, all I need is you chillin right next to me.

Chorus:

It's like the moment that I seen you, girl you had me speechless.

I don't wanna leave you, so tell me all your secrets.

You are my weakness, try and get to know me,

And I can leave my homies and be your Tendoroni.

2nd Verse

NV Sicc

Walked into the spot, she looking hot so I said "pardon me."

This part of me, couldn't let her go it got so hard to breathe,

I'm sittin back lookin at her but it got so hard to see,

Man we should be together like this melody and harmony.

Hit her up, caressed her arm and asked her what she thinkin.

I complimented on her dress, then asked her what she drinkin.

She said "a 7-7" I said "I think I'm in heaven"

Make me wanna leave my brethren oh I think my ship is sinkin.

Couples song, she took my hand and lead me to that 2 step.

Like we from Chicago wanna see just what she do next.

Know she got my mood pressed, ooh I'm feeling too blessed.

I done left my homies so I know she got my crew flexed.

As she takes my number, see this lady rocks stilettos,
Sexy sassy with her style, but know her mommy still get ghetto.

She spit her game with out the beat, she holla'd acapella,

Took her back to my pad and she was talking in falsetto.

Chorus:

It's like the moment that I seen you, girl you had me speechless.

I don't wanna leave you, so tell me all your secrets.

You are my weakness, try and get to know me,

And I can leave my homies and be your Tendoroni.

3rd Verse

Big T

Now my story takes you back to the year 2000,
Never forget the first time I seen this sweet thing
smiling
She was taken, so I had to practice patience.
But I spoke to her through every slow jam that I was playing.
Small conversations turned to hours on the phone.
Had to see her, so we started throwing parties at her home.
The closer we was gettin, that's when they started hating.
Age aint nothing but a number was the card she was playing.
Wasn't trying to disrespect, so I had to let her go.
Went our seperate ways, but one day we'll be back and
that's fa sho.
Couple years passed but my feelings never faded.
Had to see her so I called her just to get my hair braided.
The more time we spent, I knew it's for the better.
Didn't matter what we did, just as long as we together.
Through the ups and the downs I can't picture my life without her.
She had my heart from the first time I seen this sweet thang smiling.

Chorus:

It's like the moment that I seen you, girl you had me
speechless.
I don't wanna leave you, so tell me all your secrets.
You are my weakness, try and get to know me,
And I can leave my homies and be your Tendoroni.
