Here's a young one Hey, Rufus
How's the rain on the rhubarb?

You wanna go out with me?
(Yeah, I know we're out it's, like, a figure of speech)
All you need is a real girl guide
Give it up and come inside

Slip the leash
Shake it loose
Bite the peach
Suck the juice

What did you call me?
(ANGEL...)
What was that again?
(ANGEL...)

Ave gloriosa virginum regina (Hail, glorious queen of virgins,
Vitis generosa, vite medicina noble vine, elixir of life, resin of Clemencie resina mercy. Hail, abundant pool of grace,
Ave copiosa gracie piscina cleanse him of the filthy dregs of the Carnis maculosa mund'illum sentina flesh in the basin of purification)
Mundicie cortina

Hey chicken

Is that your girl?
Bet she lays like a lump

What's your poison - lemonade?
Velveteen or a razor blade?
You wanna walk in the dark with me
To a place where no-one sees?

Kiss the glove
Pretty please
You wanna pray?
On your knees

What did you call me?
(ANGEL...)
Say it again
(ANGEL...)

Claritate radiosa, stella matutina, (Morning star, radiant in Brevitate legis glossa, perte lex divina brightness, yourself a gloss
on Irradiat doctrina the brevity of law, through you Venustate vernans rosa, sine culpe spina the Divine Law illuminates with Caritate viscerosa, aurem hue inclina its teaching. O rose blooming Serves ill'a ruina with inward love incline your ear hither and save him from destruction.)

Hey sailor
How's the steam in the stovepipe?
