

Jackson Joe

"The Verdict"

Visit "The Verdict" on MotoLyrics.com

Did you do me right, did I do right by you?
When I bared my soul it seemed you did not hear, can this be true?
Am I a fool to fight? - I could do just what you say
But I'm following my heart and that takes me another way
It's not easy when there's no one giving prizes at the end

Waiting in the wings
Wishing that the band would start to play
As the show begins
Wonder what the critics have to say
Waiting, waiting
For the verdict

Some people live so fast, they're scared of getting old Some people keep on working, all they do is line their graves with gold
We don't know what happens when we die, we only know we die too soon
But we have to try or else our world becomes a waiting room
Would you testify for me? - I think I'd do the same for you

Waiting in the dark
Waiting for the phone to ring all day
My witness disappears
Wonder what the jury has to say
Waiting, waiting
For the verdict
Waiting, waiting
Waiting
Waiting

Visit Jackson Joe page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.