Gone, already when you came
I was already gone
When you came along

I don't know what I'd do
I didn't care to look
You swept me off my feet
I woke up in the street

But if you ask me about it
I'm just gonna tell you that I don't recall
No I don't recall
And if you'd ever doubt it
Nothings ever gonna be just like it was before
Like the night before

Saw you again last night
And baby what a sight
I fell down on the floor
They threw me out the door

But if you ask me about it
I'm just gonna tell you that I don't recall
No I don't recall
And if you ever doubt it
Nothings ever gonna be just like it was before
Like the night before
