Well you really had me stuck like a rabbit in your headlights Yeah, you had me in a corner, and did you've to put up a fight
But now everyone knows it's over between you and me
It's right plain inside of anyone can't you see

You've been tryin' so hard to find me
But I was lost track from the start
The longer we stay together, baby
the further we drift apart

It was mystic romance, you know I never really stood a chance
Such a sucker for you, you had me dancing like as in a trance
But now eveyone knows it's over between you and me
It's right plain inside of anyone can't you see

You've been tryin' so hard to find me
But I was lost track from the start
The longer we stay together, baby
the further we drift apart

Been stuck, back from the get go
It was wrong back from the start
The longer we stay together, baby
the further we drift apart

The first time was sweet like the taste in your very first tie
Just like stolen fruit tastes better than the kind new buy
But any fool can see that it's over between you and me They're all talking about that you're the only one who cannot see

You've been tryin' so hard to find me
But I was lost track from the start
The longer we stay together, baby
the further we drift apart

It was wrong back from the start
The longer we stay together, baby
the further we drift apart

You've been tryin' so hard to find me
But I was lost track from the start
The longer we stay together, baby
the further we drift apart
