"Tough Luck"

Are you losing sleep?
Lying all alone and thinking of me
Do you feel lost?
Like you don't know where to turn without me

Nothing goes your way anymore
Seems everything is worse than before
You can't face another day without me
That's tough luck

All your friends stay tall
Still it feels like nothing has no meaning
If you give it time
Time can heal the kind of pain you're feeling

You're all so blue
Rise of us there's sparkle and there's shine
You're lost and small
You can't face another day without me
That's tough luck
