How's it feel to be so black?
How's it feel to be so white?
How's it feel to worry about things
And never, never know who's wrong or right

Looking at things on the other side
Have you got everything or only your pride, well?

Back off brother
Why don't you live and let live, just like any other?
Back off brother
'Cause, I don't owe you nothin' and
I don't want nothin' from you

Mr. Preacher, man he act so good
Umm, says he don't but I know he would
Stick his head up the hole of love
And forget about the Lord above

Looking at things on the other side
Flames of hell gonna burn his hide

Back off brother
Why don't you live and let live just like any other?
Back off brother
I said, I don't owe you nothin' and
I don't want nothin' from you

Woo, bring it on baby
Haha, one monkey don't start no show, now
Woo, listen up
Back off
The committee want to rate my song
Back off
Woo, do won't leave well enough alone
Back off
Umm, but my time will come and theirs will pass
Back off
Haha, Uncle Sam kiss my ass

Back off brother
Why don't you live and let live just like any other?

Back off brother
'Cause I don't owe you nothin' and
I don't want nothin' from you

Back off brother
Why don't you live and let live just like any other?
Back off brother
I said, I don't owe you nothin'
Back off brother
Yeah

Back off brother
Ooh, I'm talkin' to you
Back off brother
Let me hear you sing it
Back off brother
I said, I don't owe you nothin'

Back off brother
Let me hear you sing it
Back off brother
Umm, yeah
Back off brother
Don't owe you nothin' baby
Back off brother
Woo, hey, one monkey don't start no show
